What is financial assistance?

Financial assistance is there to help those who have temporary financial problems. In order to receive financial assistance, you must first have done everything you can to support yourself. The long-term goal of financial assistance is to make you self-sufficient.

What can I help with?

The assistance is to cover monthly costs such as for food, clothing, telephone and accommodation. You can also get financial assistance for other things that you need in your everyday life, such as glasses, dental care or child care.

Who can receive financial assistance?

Each application for financial assistance is assessed on the basis of your situation at the time, but to be entitled to assistance you must:

- Be registered at the Swedish Public Employment Service and actively looking for a job if you are unemployed.
- Not have money in the bank or other things that you can sell, such as a car, boat, jewellery or artworks.
- Be unable to receive another benefit, such as unemployment insurance, activity support, sickness benefit or parental allowance. However, you may be entitled to financial assistance while you are awaiting a decision on another benefit. In some cases, you may be required to repay the money received for assistance, if you later receive a decision on another form of benefit that is valid for the same period.
- Be unable to be supported by your partner if you are married or cohabiting.

How do I apply?

Apply via e-service

It is easy to apply for financial assistance via the e-service.

You can:

- Follow your case from application to decision.
- Attach documents directly in the e-service. You can photograph the documents with a mobile phone camera or attach documents directly from your computer

Apply via form

If you cannot apply via the e-service, you can apply using a form.

The form can be obtained from the Employment and Adult Education Office or downloaded from the Norrköping Municipality website.

Remember

- You need to make a new application for each month that you need financial assistance.
- If you are not satisfied, you can appeal the decision. You must do this no later than three weeks after you have received your decision.
